Title of the Best

- Practice 1: COVID-19 Relief Fund

- Objectives of the Practice:

To help people who are suffering from COVID-19 by providing emergency relief and support. There are motivations behind providing relief fund. To contribute to the Government entity who is engaged in helping the infected people in the society. This also includes efforts to stop the virus's spread and help patients recover from the pandemic situation. A humanitarian response to meet the basic needs. Humanitarian assistance must be able to meet the basic needs on time, effectively and efficiently, for those affected by the pandemic disease are to be helped to see out to rebuild their lives quickly. It was seen that a substitute for food is the cash which is efficient way to meet the basic needs which can be supported by the development of reliable delivery mechanisms.

- The Context:

The institute believes that a motivated workforce (Staff and Students) can be a significant factor in institute's success. Humanitarian assistance strives to provide the most appropriate, effective and efficient responses to the needs of people affected by Covid -19. It was therefore considered useful to develop a set of principles to donors and humanitarian partners alike on how best to work with multi-purpose assistance. The help to the infected people can be provided in many ways depending on needs and context. The principles have emerged from recent experiences with such programmes and are intended to provide a common framework for the way donors and humanitarian partners provide multi-purpose assistance. The principles are also intended to reassure people who are affected by COVID – 19 and that assistance is provided in a responsible way. The institution has sensitized the COVID-19 situation and initiative was taken by employees of Sarada Vilas College. Employees of Sarada Vilas Institution expressing solidarity with the people to fight COVID – 19, has reached out and supported to the best of their ability.

- The Practice:

The institute has constituted the clarity of roles and responsibilities regarding the services undertaken. The government to face the COVID-19 pandemic requires an unprecedented degree of cooperation between governments and citizens and across all facets of society to implement three-dimensional distancing and other policy measures. Facing the COVID-19 (coronavirus) pandemic, governments around the world have set up various coordination mechanisms at the centre of government (COG) to facilitate pandemic response. To drive the response, not only the government will need to be fast, creative, flexible, effective, transparent and accountable, each citizen of the country are also to be more fast, creative and responsive to their society. Although COVID-19 began as a health crisis, its rapid and ongoing global spread saw it become an economic crisis first and foremost for many economies. So the institution has identified the advantage of the relief fund. The institution always takes the pride in developing citizens who are responsible. In this context Sarada Vilas Institution has donated Rs. 85000 to the Chief Minister's COVID -19 Relief Fund. Heads of the Sarada Vilas Educational institutions under the guidance of President and Hon. Secretary, presented the cheque to Deputy Commissioner Dr. Bagudi Gautham in city. This contribution has also created the awareness amongst the society that the relief fund will help the people who are in need of the basic necessities during this pandemic situation.

Evidence of Success:

The speed and severity of the shock have been met with unprecedented levels of support. These measures have helped to sustain the incomes of many and minimise initial job losses. This measure of the institute has helped to provide a degree of income security for many. The COVID-19 pandemic is emphasizing a range of operational challenges of social protection systems. In addition, the lockdown has resulted in the closing of childcare facilities and schools, depriving children from low-income families of free school meals. This relief fund has helped to distribute hygiene kits, food & medical supplies extend emergency relief. This has helped to turn institutions' good intentions into action. The COVID-19 pandemic has required policy makers to ramp up their income-support programmes by stepping up means related support to the needy. The current crisis already presents a major stress test for income-support programmes and will continue to do so over the coming months and, probably, years.

• Problem Encountered and Resources Required

- The spread of COVID-19 has already had a high human cost, and, with public health systems struggling to cope, these costs will continue to grow. The policies put in place by governments to slow the transmission of COVID-19 have led, in many countries, to a massive demand and supply shock. These effects have already led to large increases in unemployment and underemployment rates and will continue to threaten the survival of many firms worldwide. As the fund is given to chief ministers COVID 19 relief fund, hope Navigating the emergency and a challenge in sequencing is not a difficult task. As a result problem encountered ad resources required will not be known.
