Policy on Internal Complaints Cell

1. Background

Sarada Vilas College insists that every individual enjoys dignity, respect and freedom guaranteed by the constitution inside the campus. This means, no student or staff undergoes physical or mental pain due to the harassment by any fellow student or any staff of Sarada Vilas College. In order to ensure that every individual enjoys a dignified stay at Sarada Vilas College, the Internal Complaints Cell (ICC) has been constituted in the college. This has been constituted as per the guidelines and regulations of UGC. The institution comprises of three sub-committees:

- a. Grievance Redressal cell
- b. Anti-Ragging cell
- c. Prevention of Sexual Harassment Committee (POSH)

In order to curb the menace of ragging in higher educational institutions, UGC released a document on guidelines for preventing ragging in 2009. For a detailed account of ragging and the necessity of preventing ragging, one may refer the following document by UGC: http://www.ugc.ac.in/ragging_FAQ.pdf. It is to be noted that, UGC strongly recommends that no college/ Higher Education Institution which fails to take action against ragging shall continue to operate.

A mechanism is needed inside the campus to unequivocally empower women in light against the sexual harassment. Not just inside college, every organization has guidelines for the prevention of sexual harassment for women. The UGC guidelines http://www.ugc.ac.in/documents/7293022-UGC_sexual_harassment.pdf insist that every work place is safe for women and hence a POSH cell is necessary in every such work place to ensure that women feel safe and secure.

For an effective functioning of the system, there must be a proper mechanism to review it, reflect upon it and discuss upon the issues. For this reason, a grievance Redressal mechanism is required which serves to weed out the issues in the system as well as to reform the existing mechanisms.

For all these reasons, an Internal Complaints Cell comprising of Anti-Ragging Cell, Prevention of Sexual Harassment for Women Cell and the Grievance Redressal Cell have been constituted in the college. The current policy is applicable for both students and staff of Sarada Vilas College and given general guidelines for working of these committees as well as knowledge about how every student(s) should behave inside the campus. It is to be noted here that in the current policy which outlines for the working of POSH cell has been given. A detailed policy on POSH has also been prepared for better understanding on the same. This policy document is applicable only to the staff and students of Sarada Vilas College. By a 'student', we mean here any person who has been admitted to any course offered at Sarada Vilas College and by a 'staff', here mean any employees of Sarada Vilas College.

2. Guidelines for the committees

- An anti-ragging cell shall be constituted in the college as per the guidelines of UGC. The committee shall comprise of representatives from staff and police administration.
